

Eternity

(This is an editorial by the late Arthur Brisbane, written for the Boston Evening American newspaper, and is reprinted by the Boston Evening American because of its special timeliness today.)

"Eternity has no gray hairs! The flowers fade, the heart withers, man grows old and dies, the world lies down in the sepulchre of ages, but time writes no wrinkle on the brow of eternity."

—BISHOP HUBER.

Many worlds in human language are built up on the mysticism, emotions, passions, hopes and fears of a million years.

Of all the most mysterious word, AWFUL word is ETERNITY.

We begin and we end, everything that we do begins and it ends.

Old civilizations and nations are destroyed, great empires crumble and decay. But time, in eternity, goes on forever. The idea is terrifying and mentally abhorrent to a majority of human beings.

Man, a small, feeble creature moving in infinite space, and in time eternal and never again, never can end, in like a small child, floating on the shore of a limitless ocean.

It takes courage to face such a situation. Fortunately a great majority of us find comfort in the limitations that surround and comfort us. Everything ends here on earth, including ourselves—why worry about eternity?

"This narrow path leads to two boundless seas."

—MOORE.

There are, strange as it sounds, two eternities. Since time never begins and never ends, an eternity stretching back on us and, as time never will end, there is another eternity stretching ahead of us.

The heavens will change, stars will grow dim and cold, life on the planets will die. New universes, with their millions of stars, will form and time will go on, never ceasing, never ending, relentless, ETERNAL.

The modern scientist, struggling with words, presenting theories that in time will be discarded as others have been, assures you "eternity is NOT a necessity." And again is NOT infinite. Ignorant man, walking around the earth's surface, not knowing it to be round, would say there is no limit to it. We know now that he would walk in a circle and come back to the point from whence he started, because the earth is round.

"Space and time fold on themselves and come back again in a circle."

Ingenuous, but NOT convincing. Eternity may not be a NECESSITY, but it is a REALITY. And space may not be infinite, but the possibilities of space are infinite. There is, in the universe, no "wall" of mind or matter beyond which no space exists.

To say that "space folds on itself and then comes back" is not to answer the question "What is outside of that folded space?"

You may fold up eternity as you put down the lid of your piano, but you will not stop the march of time.

The mind of man, looking back at an eternity that has passed and ahead at an eternity to come, feels that the dreadful infinitude of time and space is impossible, and, at the same time, that it is inevitable. EVENTS may have begun, CREATION may have begun, EXISTENCE may have begun, but time never began and can never end and space can have no limit.

To discuss infinite space and eternal time may be called waste of time. And because of one mortal foolishness, it may be waste of time today. But for such discussion a day can never come.

The early Greeks, confining their explorations and traditions to the little Aegean Sea near their shores, would have called it waste of time to talk about exploring the vast Mediterranean, which we now call a small inland sea. Their civilization rose and fell before they had any real idea of the gigantic Atlantic outside the Straits of Gibraltar, to say nothing of the Pacific ocean far away, or

NOTABLES PAID LAST HONOR TO EDITOR

By JAMES J. KILGALLAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
New York, Dec. 28.—(AP)—Impressive funeral services for Arthur Brisbane, the great newspaper editor and columnist, were held today at St. Bartholomew's Church, after which the body was taken to Allaire, N. J., for burial in the family plot on the Brisbane estate.

ARTHUR BRISBANE

The services were at plain and simple as the words Brisbane used in his willings to teach and inspire millions the world over.

Nearly 3000 people from prominent families were present in the church and outside in Park avenue, a throng of 3000 men and women stood in lines to view the casket, which was carried through the streets.

Among the guests in addition to the members of Brisbane's family, were: William Randolph Hearst, publisher of the New York Times; J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and many other prominent figures.

BOY KIDNAPER SEEKS $28,000 CONTACT

Thomas, Wash., Dec. 28 (AP)—A police official, who declined to give out his name, reported tonight that the Dr. W. W. Mattson family has been directed to make contact with the kidnaper of Charles Mattson.

The official said the instructions were included in the note left by the kidnaper when he abducted Charles from the Mattson living room last night. He also confirmed that the note demanded $28,000 ransom.

Of this, the official said, the kidnaper demanded $10,000 in cash, $10,000 in bonds, and the remainder in six bills of $500 or more. In each case, the official said, the kidnaper was ordered to be "old and wise."

GIVEN AID HUNT
He refused to discuss any additional information about the ransom, but he said he was not in a position to say whether the ransom was paid.

Burbank, Calif., Dec. 28 (AP)—The wreckage of a missing airliner carrying 12 persons was sighted in the mountains about 18 miles north of here, United States officials announced today.

R. E. Dickinson, member of the party searching for the long overdue ship, told airline officials he saw the wreckage while flying over the mountains near Saugus.

The wreckage of the transport lay on a ridge about two miles east of the emergency airport at Saugus, he said, and the crew of the plane was "all spread out" in the valley below.

Attaches of the Saugus airport said a search of the wreckage plane ditched the spot shortly after Dickenson made his report.

NO SIGNS OF PASSENGERS
Dickinson said he could see no signs of the passengers.

The report climaxed a frantic search which began last night when the coast United Airlines, flying from San Francisco to Burbank with nine passengers and a crew of three, disappeared into the stormy night a few minutes before it was scheduled to land at the Union Air Terminal.

PROBE MOVES FAILED, SAYS SELECTMAN

Conditions exist in the Brookline police department rivaling those exposed by the Garrett investigation in Boston, Selectman Thomas J. Brady of Brookline indicated today.

Selectman Brady told of having received numerous complaints over the course of a year indicating that one law-enforcement member of the department was "running things as he saw fit and halting all attempts to interfere with him."

Similar to the situation found in the Boston police department where Oliver Garrett, acting as a patrolman, was investigated by the attorney general, he said, the Brookline case did not seem to be in the hands of the law.

The Brookline officer in question, he said, was now under investigation by District Attorney Edward E. Dewing of Norfolk County, he disclosed. Saturday afternoon he had been working on his own for months.

that steps be taken to help further further participation of the "young countries" in the Spanish war.

FAIL TO REPLY

Up to noon today no reply had been received, the foreign office said, to the ultimatum.

The French blockade scheme was first discussed informally with Britain, when it was agreed to survey the possibility of setting up a joint naval barrier to keep Germany from sending so-called volunteers to fight for the Spanish rebels.

France, it was stated, is prepared to keep any more volunteers from reaching Spain via French territory if a blockade is agreed on, and wants Britain to bring pressure on Portugal to take similar action.

That would cut off all means of ingress to Spain by land, and the British and French navies, under the suggested blockade, would take care of the seaports.

Britain, however, showed no enthusiasm for such a drastic step, and it was feared might lead to the much-discussed "incident" involving the off a general European war.

ONLY HITLER'S ACTION

Only if Germany herself approved the blockade as part of a general agreement to make non-interference really effective would Britain feel the blockade is agreed on, and it was authorized to state.

Both France and the Soviet Union, it was stated, are one means of keeping the civil war confined to Spain when the non-interference committee meets for the purpose Tuesday.

French anger could hardly be supposed today when it was reported that Hitler did not even intend to look at the Franco-British notes until after the holidays.

France, it was learned, informed Britain that the war in more willing to operate a German regime in Spain than Germany was willing to tolerate a Soviet regime there.

It was now swinging around to the same point of view.

BUSINESS GAIN FOR 1937 SEEN BY CHAMBER

Substantial increase in every branch of business for 1937 and most optimistic prospects for 1938 were reported today by the Bureau of Commercial and Industrial Affairs of the Boston Chamber of Commerce.

Industrial activity has experienced a steadily increasing volume in Boston and surrounding manufacturing areas since the 1933 low point, the Chamber survey shows.

Employment has increased nearly 15 per cent and payrolls 35 per cent over 1932 low, as measured by consumption of cotton by New England mills.

Receipts of foreign and domestic wool at Boston for 1936 will approach the 400,000-pound mark, a point near peace-time record.

33 P. C. TEXTILE GAIN

Cotton manufacturing industry has advanced 33 per cent over 1932 low, as measured by consumption of cotton by New England mills.

The best and slowest industry is expected to have advanced a new high point in 1937.

Department stores sales expressed in dollars, as measured by the index of the Federal Reserve Board, the survey says, show 1936 to be about 113 per cent above 1932.

"No adjustment is made for the effect of lower prices," the Chamber comments, "and these figures reveal a large volume of automobiles and other luxury purchases that are sold through other channels."

INCREASE IN BUILDING

Building permits for Boston in 1936 were 111 per cent above 1932 low, and in the metropolitan area, 96 per cent.

A significant, perhaps, is the index showing sales of power and light to large business consumers in Boston and other important cities of the metropolitan area—34 per cent ahead of the area—34 per cent ahead of the area—34 per cent ahead of the area.

the ocean of space outside this world.

Eternity interests us because we are IN IT and forever must stay in it, whether it be as dust and ashes, or as living, striving spirits, as the happier majority believe.

For those whom eternity appeals, our lives on earth, and perhaps through all eternity, are mercifully divided into small sections of existence that do not overwhelm us.

Even the brief, three score and ten years of earthly life are divided into little plots of time—days and nights, weeks and months, seasons and years, childhood, youth, middle age, old age, and death. Everything begins and ends swiftly. It is all MADE EASY FOR US.

Perhaps it will be so hereafter, when in other realms we look on through unending time and space.

It says in the Bible: "In My Father's house are many mansions." Perhaps in all of them we live longer or shorter lives; here three score and ten, there, perhaps on some greater planet or star, three score and ten thousand years, which is a drop in the ocean of time.

Eternity is glorious to a man of ambition, who believes that his soul and his life will endure forever; that he, like time, is eternal. Eternity will give him plenty of time for his ambitions to be realized. The timid soul, shrinking from the fearful strength of eternal years, or the bitter mind convinced that this little life ends everything, need find no terror in eternity. For, if, indeed, they do to sleep and never awaken, eternity does not interest them. If you want to sleep tonight it would not matter to you, as regards time, whether you awoke to morning or to a thousand million years hence.

In unconsciousness you would not know the difference.

The ambitious man rejoices in the thought of time and space without limit in which to strive and improve forever. Ambition and hope are always young eternally.

Milton said: "Beyond is all abyss, eternity, whose end no eye can reach." But a better quote for the man of ambition is this:

"The youth of the soul is everlasting, and eternity is youth."

P. S.—As an interesting experiment, try with your friends to fix your CONCENTRATED thought on eternity for five minutes. You will find it cannot be done.

'Soviet Intervention' Denounced by Hitler

By PIERRE J. HUSS

BRUSSELS, 1935, Associated Press

Berlin, Dec. 23.—Chancellor Adolf Hitler is willing to co-operate with Britain and France in attempting to contain an aggressive Spain and to maintain the peace in Europe, according to London and Paris dispatches.

Hitler, however, would not tolerate any "Soviet intervention" in the Spanish war, according to New Service dispatches in high quarters today.

Hitler, and not Germany, is the real subject of the German press according to the German view, and definite assurance was shown by high officials that Hitler and France should have wanted Germany to take the "Soviet" issue.

Germany, it was stated, does not desire a German-Soviet alliance, and it is not possible to separate from the general Spanish war, and it is not possible to allow it to interfere with the regular negotiations for settlement of the international situation of the Spanish peninsula.

EFFECTS FUTURE

The latest news is expected to calm tempers leading to foreign action, and the German press is expected to spread the war beyond the German frontiers.

Some information apparently has been received in Berlin that the German government has decided to send a mission to Moscow to discuss the possibility of a German-Soviet alliance, and that the mission is expected to return to Berlin in a few days.

the little vessel off Spain's north coast last week.

Chancellor Hitler is ready to continue diplomatic negotiations regarding Spain, but he is not ready to accept any conditions of pressure upon the Reich as indicated in what Germany considers a systematic plan to organize a German regime in Spain.

Hitler, it was stated, is willing to tolerate a Soviet regime there, but he is not willing to tolerate a Soviet regime there.

It was now swinging around to the same point of view.

Girl on Lost Plane Was To Be Wed

DETROIT, Dec. 28 (AP)—The engagement of Air Stewardess Yvonne Trego to Charles D. Kelly, member of a prominent Detroit family, was revealed today when the girl was reported missing aboard a United Airlines transport plane on the west coast.

Kelly was graduated in 1935 from the University of Michigan and his mother said he was a member of the Detroit club and had been with him when he was launching a business career.

Miss Trego is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trego of Hastings, Mich.

She was called for a special session of the grand jury, I think that is highly improper for my office to make any further comment on the situation.

Two persons, a man and a woman, were interviewed about the case today by Dewing.

Members of the police and the Detroit Police Department were interviewed about the case today by Dewing.

KIDNAPER SEEKS CONTACT WITH BOY'S FAMILY

He was "bearing up well" under the strain. The marked intruder broke into the living room, searched the child's room, found the boy, and then, snatching the boy, cried:

"This is something better than money!"

He threw the note to the floor. The boy, who had his arms and feet bound, was taken to the room where the kidnaper was waiting.

Charles, sister, Marie, 11, and her friend, Virginia, 10, were sitting on the floor, looking on in amazement.

The kidnaper, who was wearing a blue jacket and a light tan cap, was sitting on the floor, looking on in amazement.

Varsity Coaches in Mid-Winter Huddle On Pass Interference

The varsity coaches of the American Football Association met in a huddle at the annual winter meeting of the association at New York City last night.

Austen Lake, president of the association, presided over the meeting. The coaches discussed the rules of the game, particularly the new rule on pass interference, and the importance of the Rose Bowl game.

At the meeting, this practically priceless suggestion in regard to the new rule on pass interference was discussed. It seems like a simple rule, but it is a new one.

Joe Cashman Says:
Big League Pilot
Job Lured Clymer

New Orleans, Dec. 28 (U.S. A.)—The San Romani, Boston's veteran Glenn Cunningham, by inches and a few minutes, has won the 1936 mile record when he ran the distance in 1:11.

William "Dicksie" Clymer is dead. For 10 years, up to his retirement three years ago, Clymer was perhaps the most widely known minor league manager in the country.

When Clymer was killed in a plane crash, he was on his way to New Orleans to see the San Romani race.

Today's Plots of Models
A. M. M. P.

In the new season hangar of Brooks Field at San Antonio, Tex., 17 ambitious youths battled today for the honor within the reach of the thousands of young American model plane builders.

It is the national indoor model plane flying championship for 1936 and its accompanying rewards, the William Randolph Hearst trophy and $250 in cash or an aviation scholarship of equivalent value.

NEW HAVEN R. R. November PROFIT IS Reported

By HUGH E. BRADSHAW The November operating statement of the New Haven Railroad is chiefly notable for the large gain in gross revenues reported and the consequent development of a surplus after charges.

For the full 11-month period, however, results were not so impressive and a somewhat larger deficit is shown than the report reported in the corresponding 1935 period.

New Haven's November gross of $7,028,276, greater than that of November, 1935 by $200,881, resulted in a surplus of $300,111 in comparison with a loss in the same month last year of $1,018,708. A breakdown of the gain in revenues reveals that a percentage basis passenger traffic and freight moved 100 percent, while revenue increased $100,000, or 100 percent, and operating revenue was up $100,000, or 100 percent.

As the time for the traditional month-end accounting approaches, the New Haven Railroad is faced with the difficult task of reconciling the accounts with which the company is faced. The company is faced with the difficult task of reconciling the accounts with which the company is faced. The company is faced with the difficult task of reconciling the accounts with which the company is faced.

Nationwide—Today's deficit in the New Haven Railroad is the result of a number of factors. The company is faced with the difficult task of reconciling the accounts with which the company is faced. The company is faced with the difficult task of reconciling the accounts with which the company is faced.

Stocks—The New Haven Railroad's stock is expected to be a small margin for the full year. But in 1937, the company is expected to be a small margin for the full year. But in 1937, the company is expected to be a small margin for the full year.

FEAR ENDING Nation Mood

By B. C. FORBES America enters the final week of the year in cheerful mood, with trade and industry very substantially ahead of 12 months ago, with employment and wages on the up-grade, with our railroads making a better showing, with government revenue expanding impressively, with average savings bank deposits in New York exchange almost 20 per cent above last year-end, with total agricultural income estimated at $9,530,000,000 (the best in half-a-dozen years).

Radio News: COWARD Broadcasts ON AIR AUTHOR IN DIAL DRAMA DOINGS

By M. F. T.

There's a choice afloat to be at hand with the "Radio Theatre" coming (WEEI) tonight between 9 and 10 o'clock.

It will bring a broadcast edition of "Cavalcade," the great story and picture by Noel Coward.

Mr. Coward's "Cavalcade" is a story of the life of the British people from the time of the Norman Conquest to the present day.

The story is told in a series of episodes, each of which is a play in itself. The episodes are: "The Norman Conquest," "The Hundred Years War," "The Tudor Age," "The Stuart Age," "The Georgian Age," "The Victorian Age," and "The Modern Age."
